

Montgomery
Philharmonic
Our 12th Season

*2018 Bernie Rappaport
Middle School
Young Artist Competition*

Application Due – Wednesday, November 8, 2017

Audition Date – Monday, November 13, 2017

Audition Time 5:00–6:30 PM (by appointment)

Purpose The purpose of this competition is to give young students the opportunity to learn a major work without the pressure of having to memorize the entire piece. There will not be ONE winner, but rather a small GROUP of soloists. It is important that all contestants realize that if you are chosen to be part of the soloist group, you will SHARE the solo in tag team style with up to five members in the soloist GROUP. You will be matched to a section of the solo by the conductor according to your strengths. The decision of the conductor is final.

Prize The opportunity to play with the Montgomery Philharmonic at our January 29, 2018 concert at Montgomery Village Middle School

Repertoire Concerto in D for Cello and Orchestra, RV 403 – Antonio Vivaldi
Movement 1 – Allegro
Movement 2 – Andante e spiritoso

Please use the IMSLP

http://ks.petrucmusiclibrary.org/files/imglnks/usimg/c/c9/IMSLP296967-PMLP431259-Cello_Solo.pdf

Scales: C major – 2 octaves, D major – 2 octaves, A harmonic minor – 2 octaves

Eligibility Applicants must be middle school students (Grades 6–8) who are enrolled in their school band or orchestra program. If your school does not have a band or an orchestra, please ask your parents to write a note.

Application Go to montgomeryphilharmonic.org or see your orchestra director or private teacher for an application form.

Information Morgan Jenkins – mjj6@psu.edu
Amanda Laudwein – aleeml.1234@gmail.com

